IN RECOGNITION OF THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF MILLARD FULLER

HON. MIKE ROGERS

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 11, 2009

Mr. ROGERS of Alabama. Madam Speaker, I respectfully ask the attention of the House today to pay recognition to the life and legacy of Mr. Millard Fuller, and his steadfast service in giving back to the world.

Mr. Fuller was born in Lanett, Alabama. As many folks know, he dedicated his life to serving others through his Christian housing ministries, Habitat for Humanity, which built 200,000 homes in 100 countries, and later The Fuller Center for Housing. In recognition of his lifelong service, in 1996, Mr. Fuller was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President Clinton.

Mr. Fuller passed away on February 3rd 2009, at the age of 74. On March 14, 2009, a celebration of his life will be held at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia.

I am honored to recognize this inspirational philanthropist who spent his lifetime helping others in need. It is my hope his memory will serve as an example of how we all should live.

HONORING COLORADO COMMISSIONERS OF AGRICULTURE FOR THEIR SERVICE AND LEADERSHIP

HON. BETSY MARKEY

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 11, 2009

Ms. MARKEY of Colorado. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the Colorado Commissioner of Agriculture, Mr. John Stulp and former Commissioners Mr. Don Ament, Mr. Tom Kourlis, Mr. Steve Horn, Mr. Peter Decker, Mr. Tim Schultz, Mr. Evan Goulding, Mr. Morgan Smith, Mr. Roy Romer, the late Mr. Clinton Jeffers, the late Mr. John Orcutt, and the late Mr. Paul Swisher for their service and leadership.

The foundation of Colorado's history was built by the farmers and ranchers who dedicated their lives to settling the land. Today producers continue to be a fundamental pillar of our state's communities. Over 30 million acres in Colorado are dedicated to agriculture and our producers work endlessly to provide our nation with a safe and reliable food supply. Under the guidance of those who have served as Commissioner of Agriculture, Colorado's farmers and ranchers have been able to efficiently transfer food from their fields to our tables.

Over the years, Colorado agriculture has survived economic strain, destructive weather and severe drought. The unyielding leadership of all our Commissioners has ensured that our food supply would be secure even in the face of hardships. They have worked to develop the sustainable farming programs that serve our rural communities and strived to overcome the challenges that were presented to them. March 20, 2009 is National Agriculture Day, celebrating producers across the country. I would like to honor the Commissioners who have led Colorado's agriculture community towards a thriving future and thank them for their dedication.

RONALD H. BROWN UNITED STATES MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS BUILDING

SPEECH OF

HON. SHEILA JACKSON-LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong support of H.R. 837, the "Ronald H. Brown United States Mission to the United Nations Building". I would like to thank my colleague CHARLIE RANGEL for introducing this legislation. H.R. 837 moves to designate the federal building at 799 United Nations Plaza in New York as the Ronald H. Brown United States Mission to the United Nations Building.

Former United States Secretary of Commerce under President Clinton, Ronald Brown, has always been a dedicated U.S. servant. Born in Washington, DC, he quickly showed an interest in public service, as a young man he was a member of the African-American social and philanthropic organization. Brown also worked for the Jack and Jill foundation, an organization that works to help children to have cultural opportunities, develop leadership skills, and form social networks even in a segregated society.

Having not only a passion for public service Brown had a strong desire to serve his country as well. In 1962 upon graduation of Middlebury College he enlisted in the army, where he served in Korea and Europe.

Upon being discharged Brown joined the National Urban League, an organization that aims at advocating on behalf of African Americans and against racial discrimination in the United States. He would excel within the organization where he moved all the way up to Deputy Executive Director for Programs and Governmental Affairs. Following his service with the National Urban League, he immediately began fighting for another great American public servant, EDWARD M. KENNEDY. Brown served as campaign manager for the now second most senior member of the United States Senate.

After running KENNEDY's successful Senate campaign, Brown began a string of political occupations that include lobbying for the law firm Patton, Boggs & Blow, Head of the Jesse Jackson convention team for the Democratic National Convention in Atlanta. Finally Brown was elected chairman of the Democratic National Committee in February of 1989. Tragically, on April 3, 1996 on an official trade mission, his plane carrying him and 34 other passengers struck a mountain while attempting a procedural landing.

Ronald H. Brown was a man that dedicated his entire life to bettering the lives of others. Whether it be young African Americans in New York, fighting for the freedom of all Americans in some of the world's most dangerous battlefields, or working day in and out to help promote and excel the careers of others whose ideals and policies he believed would better the nation. Brown's is a story that deserves to be recognized everyday. I feel designating a building in his name is the perfect way to recognize this true American public servant. This building will stand long after generations have gone and will hopefully remind all generations to come, that a dedicated spirit
